

Brasilia, 24th of July, 2026.

Excellency,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's Note, dated the 24th of July, 2026, informing me that, with a view to continuing to facilitate travel as well as cultural and commercial relations between Japan and the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil extends the implementation of the following measures, until the 29th of September, 2029 (including this day), concerning the waiver of the visa requirements for nationals of Japan wishing to enter the Federative Republic of Brazil:

"Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to the Note MRE/DAI/DIM/DJC/02/PAIN BRAS JAPA/2023/4, dated the 9th of August, 2023, which informs that the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil adopted the waiver of the visa requirements for nationals of Japan in possession of valid ordinary passports for a period not exceeding ninety (90) consecutive days, until the 29th of September, 2026.

With a view to continuing to facilitate travel as well as cultural and commercial relations between the Federative Republic of Brazil and Japan, the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil hereby informs that it extends the implementation of the following measures, until the 29th of September, 2029 (including this day), concerning the waiver of the visa requirements for nationals of Japan wishing to enter the Federative Republic of Brazil:

1. Nationals of Japan in possession of valid ordinary passports of Japan who wish to enter the Federative Republic of Brazil with the intention of staying there for a period not exceeding ninety (90) consecutive days may enter the Federative Republic of Brazil without obtaining visas.

To Her Excellency
Maria Laura da Rocha
Acting Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Federative Republic of Brazil

2. The waiver of the visa requirements under paragraph 1 above will apply to nationals of Japan in possession of valid ordinary passports of Japan which are ICAO-compliant IC passports.

3. Nationals of Japan in possession of valid ordinary passports of Japan which are not IC passports will be required to obtain visas in advance, and will be refused to enter the Federative Republic of Brazil when they do not possess visas.

4. The waiver of the visa requirements under paragraph 1 above will not apply to nationals of Japan who wish to enter the Federative Republic of Brazil with the intention of seeking employment or of exercising a profession or other occupation (including public entertainment and sport for remunerative purposes).

5. Nationals of Japan who wish to enter the Federative Republic of Brazil will be obliged to observe the laws and regulations of the Federative Republic of Brazil. The Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil reserves the right to refuse entry into or stay in the Federative Republic of Brazil to nationals of Japan if it considers that they would impair the interests of the Federative Republic of Brazil.

6. The Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil reserves the right to temporarily suspend the application of all or any part of the foregoing measures for reasons of public policy including those relating to public security, order and health. Any such suspension or the lifting of the suspension will be notified immediately to the Government of Japan through diplomatic channels.

7. The foregoing measures can be extended in accordance with the notification provided by the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil to the Government of Japan before the 29th of September, 2029 (including this day). The Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil may discontinue the foregoing measures by giving thirty (30) days' written notice in advance to the Government of Japan."

In reply, I have the honour to inform that the Government of Japan will extend the implementation of the following measures, until the 29th of September, 2029 (including this day), concerning the waiver of the visa requirements for nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil wishing to enter Japan:

1. Nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil in possession of valid ordinary passports of the Federative Republic of Brazil who wish to enter Japan with the intention of staying there for a period not exceeding ninety (90) consecutive days may enter Japan without obtaining visas.

2. The waiver of the visa requirements under paragraph 1 above will apply to nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil in possession of valid ordinary passports of the Federative Republic of Brazil which are ICAO-compliant IC passports.
3. Nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil in possession of valid ordinary passports of the Federative Republic of Brazil which are not IC passports will be required to obtain visas in advance, and will be refused to enter Japan when they do not possess visas.
4. The waiver of the visa requirements under paragraph 1 above will not apply to nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil who wish to enter Japan with the intention of seeking employment or of exercising a profession or other occupation (including public entertainment and sport for remunerative purposes).
5. Nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil who wish to enter Japan will be obliged to observe the laws and regulations of Japan. The Government of Japan reserves the right to refuse entry into or stay in Japan to nationals of the Federative Republic of Brazil if it considers that they would impair the interests of Japan.
6. The Government of Japan reserves the right to temporarily suspend the application of all or any part of the foregoing measures for reasons of public policy including those relating to public security, order and health. Any such suspension or the lifting of the suspension will be notified immediately to the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil through diplomatic channels.
7. The foregoing measures will be in effect from the 30th of September, 2026 to the 29th of September, 2029 (including this day) and can be extended in line with the notification provided by the Government of Japan to the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil before the aforementioned date. The Government of Japan may discontinue the foregoing measures by giving thirty (30) days' written notice in advance to the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

NOGUCHI Yasushi

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Japan
to the Federative Republic of Brazil
